Unit 2 was proceeding southbound on Wadsworth Road and had the right-of-way, as confirmed by its driver and an independent witness who observed Unit 2 had a green light. Despite the driver of Unit 2 applying the brakes, a collision was unavoidable. The point of impact was the front passenger bumper of Unit 2 and the rear passenger fender and wheel area of Unit 1. The driver of Unit 1 indicated she attempted the turn because she thought the traffic signal was about to change to red. The driver of Unit 1 was cited for failure to yield while making a left turn at an intersection. Both units were not moved prior to my arrival. Both units suffered disabling damage and were towed from the scene.
