Unit #1 was parked in a parking spot and the driver was in the store. When the driver came back out he saw that there was damage to his rear driver's side. It appeared to be a white car that hit him based off the paint transfer, however the vehicle left the scene. The accident was not witnessed and I spoke to Buehler's staff and I was advised that they have no cameras for the parking lot. Nearby PNC bank had a camera however there was a tree between the camera and the vehicle that was hit.
